

About BJ Gallagher . . .

BJ GALLAGHER, Ph.D., CCC-SLP has worked with AT:LAST, Inc./Maryland AT Cooperative since its inception. In June 2007, BJ retired as the Team Leader for the Assistive Technology Team in Baltimore City Public Schools. Shortly thereafter she moved to Deep Creek Lake in Garrett County and opened a private practice working with children and adults in the rural Western Maryland counties. In addition, BJ teaches graduate courses for McDaniel College, College of Notre Dame, and Johns Hopkins University. She provides expertise supporting individuals with oral and written communication assistive technology needs.