

About Diana Jurist . . .

DIANA JURIST joined AT:LAST in the summer of 2008 as an Assistive Technology Specialist after working nearly ten years as a consultant for an AAC manufacturer. Diana has conducted numerous in-services and training sessions to rehabilitation therapists (S/LP, OT), public and private schools, governmental offices (OVR/DVR/MHMR), insurance providers, private practice organizations, and consumers. She has been a regular presenter at regional assistive technology conferences and the CAMA Tours. Diana's educational experience in Speech Language Pathology at SUNY Cortland, 12 years' experience in both the Computer and Assistive Technology/ AAC fields, years of experience in technology and funding, and her exposure to a diverse population of individuals provides professionals with valuable information to improve not only their clients' communication but also their quality of life.